ormer superintendent of schools, who con will leave to assume charge of the Pittsburgh schools, lent a tinge of sad-the Commissioners in session as a public utilities commission last night.

Recensideration of this question was brought about through an opinion by Corporation Counsel Corrad H. Syme, in which now facts were presented.

There was a thorough examination of the subject by the commission. Resides the three Commissioners, Corporation Counsel Syme and Capt. Julian Schley, executive officer of the utilities body, were present during the meeting.

The action of the commission yesterday finally disposes of the question as to whether members of the police department may be allowed free transportation over the city electric lines under the new utilities law.
